WICKSON.

Wickson, May 21.—We are still being visited by the rains. Crops are unusually late and extraordinarily sorry. Corn is almost a complete failure and cotton badly damaged. I have not seen a real healthy smile from a farmer in a month and if providence does not smile upon us during the summer months the cotton crop will be cut 50 per cent short of last year.

Rev. J. C. Mickle is visiting here this week.

Mrs. Steele of Allenfarm, is visiting J. H. White and family and other relatives here.

Mrs. Jenolie Symms of Millican, came up to see her mother, Mrs. J. C. Freeman, last week and returned home Wednesday.

There is not much sickness in the community at present, but Mr. E. J. Beard had a high fever Saturday afternoon.

There will be preaching at Wesson Sunday morning and probably at night. Our choir meets at Wickson Sunday at 2:30 o'clock. Every body is especially invited to attend this meeting as the county singing convention meets at Wickson on the 1st Sunday in July and the choir wants to prepare for it—everybody come to the convention Creole

HARVEY.

Harvey, Texas, May 20.—More rain today.

It seems as if the farmers are having a very gloomy time; some never did get to plant all their crops before another shower would come.

There will be services next fourth Sunday at Bethel.

GREEN'S PRAIRIE.

Green's Prairie, May 21.—We haven't done anything in one crops in three weeks. I don't suppose there is 20 acres of cotton chopped in our community; cotton looks very bad; corn is beginning to look some better, quite a change in it in the past week. Gardens are all drowned out. Mrs. Cora Williams has the only garden on the prairie.

Roads have washed until they are almost impassable.

Mrs. R. F. Lockler returned home last Thursday, after spending a few days with her brothers, G. R. and W. S. Dixon.

Some Big Hunters.

New York has some of the famous hunters of the world. Mr. Charles Kanlett Flint has killed the biggest game in both of the Western hemispheres, North and South America. Mr. Edward R. Ladew, the millionaire leather merchant, former partner of old Fayerweather, has ridden the crocodiles of the Nile. Victor Smith asserts, stripped the stripes from the tiger of the Tugela, shot the lion of the Llano, potted the rhinoceros of the Ringho, mowed down the proud bull moose of the Massif, bearded in his snowy den the musk ox of Manitoba, slaughtered the peccaries of Patagonia and taught the gorilla of Ghambesi the art of gnashing his teeth. The Rev. Dr. William S. Rainsford, of St. George's church, has in his study ample evidence of his prowess as a hunter of big game, the walls being decorated with antlers of the royal elk and claws and teeth of the pugnacious grizzly.

Police Protection From Surprisers.

A man appeared at police headquarters in a Pennsylvania city the other day, and requested the services of some officer. Thinking a murder or some kindred crime had been committed, the chief had summoned one of his best men before the real import of the man's request was made manifest. Instead of being a killing affray, the man wanted protection from the onslaught of a proposed surprise party which was to be given to his niece that night. He said he hated such things, and would not have them, even if his wife and niece did want them. He did not wish to be guilty of assault and battery or possibly worse, hence his request for police protection. A roundsman was sent to guard the premises, and, though the guests arrived, they were not allowed to enter the house, so the surprise party did not come off.

The 400's New Leader.

There is much speculation among the truly aristocratic circles in New York over a rumor that Mrs. Astor has decided to abdicate her society leadership in favor of Mrs. Edmund Baylies. Mrs. Astor is understood to have been instructing the heiress apparent in the duties and privileges of a social queen and has found an apt pupil. Mrs. Baylies is of old Knickerbocker stock and therefore, at least so far as "blood" is concerned, fully qualified to wield the scepter.

Free Textbook System.

In the free textbook system, in operation in Yankton, S. D., the children rent the books, the yearly charge ranging from 20 cents in the first grade to 85 cents in the eighth grade. The fee entitles the pupil to all the books available for his grade.

His Reasons.

"I don't b'leve in no ghosts," said the Georgia philosopher. "After a man dies, dat's de las' er 'im fur ez dis worl' is consarn. Ef Satan got 'im he can't break out, en ef he in heaven he knows de value of a good thing too well ter tu'n loose!"

A New Johann Strauss.

A new Johann Strauss is in the field. He is a son of Edward Strauss, and a nephew of Johann II., and has already composed an operetta. He is going to start this year on a trip around the world with a "Johann Strauss Vienna Orchestra."

Easy in, but Hard to Get Out.

A marriage license bill was killed in the South Carolina state senate without debate and without division. It is therefore as easy as ever to get married in the Palmetto state. But if divorce is sought for there, then comes the difficulty.

Latest Reform Scheme.

Miss Hattie Bumgarner, of New Milford, Conn., has a novel plan for reforming saloons. The scheme is to have the best citizens frequent the saloons, not to drink, but to form a social surrounding of a high order.

The Deweys in Chicago.

Admiral and Mrs. Dewey will be the guests of honor at the Chicago military and naval ball to be held in the Auditorium next May.

British Paper Famine.

The paper famine in England is getting to be serious. It is caused by the difficulty in getting wood pulp, by the rise in the price of coal and by the enormous increase in demand and stoppage of supplies from America. The South African war has naturally increased the circulation of newspapers.

Naturally.

A London hairdresser who failed to turn an American woman's black hair to Titian hue has collected $10 for it in court. And then the woman got red-headed!

EXCURSION TO EL PASO.

The El Paso chamber of commerce issues a circular regarding the meeting of the State Teachers association in that city in June, from which we take the following extracts. Full particulars may be had by addressing El Paso chamber of commerce: To Editors, Teachers and all Others Interested:

The annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers' association for the present year will be held in El Paso, June 26th to 29th. This meeting will offer in a number of important particulars an uncommonly favorable and inviting opportunity for the people of Eastern Texas to visit this unique and active city on the Mexican border, enjoy its hospitality, visit a number of points of interest to which excursions will be made, and have a good time generally.

Some of the more important excursion rates already secured in connection with this meeting are as follows:

From points as far east as Dallas, Sherman and Houston, the T. & P. and G. H. & S. A. Railway companies have granted a blanket rate of $10 for the round trip. The tickets can be extended, if desired, to August 5th. Unusually favorable rates are also offered visitors who may wish to take a trip from El Paso into old Mexico.

A trip from El Paso to the beautiful mountain resort of Cloudcroft and return the same day has been arranged for, at a round trip rate of $3. This trip is one of the most unique and enjoyable excursions open to the tourist anywhere. It cannot be described. It must be experienced. The railroad which ascends the mountain is itself a wonder of engineering, and it climbs up, up, up among the clouds to an elevation of nine thousand feet, where are great forests of pine, pure, cold spring water, air that is not merely cool, but cold, even in mid summer, and mountain views that are rarely equaled in grandeur and picturesqueness. Other exceedingly interesting nearby trips are mentioned.

The hotels will charge for one person in one room, with meals, $1.50 to $2.50 per day; or where two people occupy a room, $1.25 to $2 each. Good beds in apartment houses and private residences will cost from 50 to 75 cents per night, and good meals at restaurants and boarding houses and hotels 25 to 50 cents.

Local committees will look after the interest and comfort of guests, and no extortion will be permitted.

At the close of the convention a Summer State School of Methods will be held, lasting until about the 5th of August. Thus the visiting teacher is offered, along with the pleasure and entertainment of the trip to El Paso, an opportunity for a profitable session of professional study. Teachers from Eastern Texas are assured that they will find their stay in El Paso a pleasant recreation for the whole time they may be here.

Everybody is invited—not merely teachers, but everybody else who wants to come. And everybody will be treated as well as El Paso knows how to do it.

EL PASO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
Ernest E. Russell,
Secretary.

KERNOLE BROS.

PUSHING AHEAD.

General French Has Reached Prospect Station Beyond the Rhenoster.

London, May 24.—General French has reached Prospect Station, about 5 miles north of Rhenoster river. The Boers are retreating straight on the Vaal. A dispatch from Rhenoster, dated on Wednesday says:

"The general opinion is we will reach Pretoria as fast as we can march, though the Boers announced to all the country they intended to fight to death."

Ian Hamilton is cooperating in advance on the right, thus Roberts, who presumably is a few miles behind French, will reach the Vaal before the end of the week.

In Natal Buller's forces have crossed into the Transvaal near Ingogo, but still held at bay at Laings Nek, where the Boers are entrenched. With the exception of this pass, Natal is clear of the Boers. They have a big gun posted, but it is doubtful if they will be able to hold the position when threatened by flanking movement from the force that has crossed the Ingogo river.

A dispatch from Pretoria announces the first train north entered Mafeking on May 22, and the first train south is expected next week. It is said that the relief of Mafeking is due to a blunder of one of the Federal officers, by which General Delahey was foiled in his plan to cut off the relief force after driving them away from Molopo river. It is added that the Federals have resolved to make a determined defense of Johannesburg. Klimke, state mining engineer, has been given six months leave of absence presumably for protesting against the proposition to blow up the mines.

A special dispatch from New Castle, Natal, says Russian ambulance corps, with the Boers, is disgusted with their conduct and has requested the czar that he recall it.

BOER COMMISSIONERS.

They Are Undetermined What Course They Will Now Pursue.

Washington, May 24.—The plans of campaign of the Boer peace commissioners have not yet been fully outlined. They will probably remain in Washington until Tuesday, after which they will begin a tour of the west as has been previously intimated.

Mr. Fischer, of the delegation is now busy outlining itinerary, but he says it was too early to give any definite details of that plan.

Mr. Wessels, one of the members who speaks good English, probably will go to Bridgeport Saturday night with Representative Lentz of Ohio, to address a pro Boer meeting there.

The delegates have not yet decided whether or not they will issue an official statement before leaving Washington. They feel that under the circumstances this would be a delicate undertaking and no matter how carefully it was worded would be liable to misconstruction.

Therefore it is quite probable their statements will be confined to whatever addresses they may make at pro Boer meetings, which are being arranged for their coming tour of the country.

WILL GET NOTHING.

Damage Suits Against La Bourgogne Must Be Dismissed.

New York, May 24.—The French line to New York known as Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, whose steamship La Bourgogne sank on July 4, 1898, from 60 to 100 miles off Sable Island, with a great loss of life, has filed a petition in the United States district court which, it is said, will practically cut off without a cent, all claimants for damages. There are 63 claims in all, and the claimants which have been stated on papers filed amount to $1,206,534.75.

There are 21 claims in which the amounts are not stated, and these will bring the sum total up to about $1,500,000. The petition of the French line prays for a limitation of its liability, for loss, damage or injury caused by the collision between La Bourgogne and the British ship Cromartyshire, which resulted in the foundering of the French liner. This limitation, according to the federal statute upon which the petition is made, is the value of the ship and the freight pending. Inasmuch as all that was left of the ship was a boat and a life raft and the freight sunk with the ship, the liability of the company is practically limited to nothing.

The statute upon which the petitioner seeks relief was passed in 1851.

Mine Victims Buried.

Raleigh, N. C., May 24.—Ten whites and twelve negroes, who lost their lives in an explosion at Crimnoch coal mines, Chatham county, N. C., Tuesday afternoon were buried there Wednesday. The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a broken gauze in a safety lamp. The accident was in what is known as the East Heading and between 40 and 60 men were in the mine at the time. Five were brought out alive from the east. None of the men in the other parts of the other parts of the mine were injured.

Big Undertaking.

Atlanta, May 24.—The southern general assembly of the Presbyterian church will likely raise a Twentieth Century fund of $1,000,000 to be used principally for endowment and establishment of educational institutions.

Victim of Hydrophobia.

Luling, Tex., May 23.—The remains of J. T. Foster who died at Uvalde, Tex., of hydrophobia caused by the bite of a mad wolf, were brought here and interred.

Mrs. McKinley's Morning Drive.
Mrs. McKinley drives every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock, almost invariably accompanied by some friend. "The court ladies," as cynics sometimes call them, value highly the privilege of driving with the president's wife, the wives of cabinet officers being most frequently favored in this way.

Overreached Himself.

A builder in Glasgow, having heard that his men did not start work at the proper time, thought that he would drop down some morning about 6:30 to see, says Waverly Magazine. Going up the yard he caught sight of a joiner standing smoking, with his kit unopened. Simply asking his name, which he found to be Malcolm Campbell, he called him into the office and, handing four days' pay, told him to leave at once. After having seen the man clear out of the yards he went up to the foreman and told him he had made an example of Malcolm Campbell by paying him off for not starting at the proper time. "Great Scott!" exclaimed the foreman, "that chap was only looking for a job!"

To Harden Copper Like Steel.

D. L. Andrews, of Nashua, N. H., formerly a resident of the western part of the country, believes he has discovered that lost art of tempering copper to the firmness of steel. Mr. Andrews is a grizzled but hearty looking man of 80, although he would be taken to be twelve or fifteen years younger. He was born in Vermont, but most of the active years of his life have been spent in the West, where he was long employed as a coal inspector. His home was in the copper regions of Michigan, and it was there that he first saw the hardened copper as it had come down from the ancients who peopled that country centuries before. In conversation with a newspaper man, Mr. Andrews said "I can temper and harden copper to the firmness of steel to a degree of nicety that the ancients never dreamed of, and, unless I am greatly mistaken, my secret, when once applied in a practical sense, will revolutionize many things in the scientific world. I know the value of my secret, and have taken plans to fully preserve it in the event of my demise. My plans for the present are to dispose of a fractional interest for the purpose of securing the necessary funds to place my art in the hands of capitalists. I have an offer of $50,000 for a one-third interest, and I have been told by New York parties with whom I have been in touch that the rights for this country alone are worth at least $1,000,000."

Her Husband's Pulpit Substitute.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Mr. M. E. Harlan from his pulpit in the First Church of Christ, Disciples, in Sterling place, Brooklyn, his wife preached at both services Sunday. Mrs. Harlan has been engaged in missionary work for a number of years, but it was the first time she had preached since she went to Brooklyn from Topeka, Kas., six months ago. Her subject at the evening service was, "Dignified Humanity."

Correcting an Error.

The editor of the Star of Hope, Sing Sing, 1,500, denounces as false the report that "the convict editor of the Star of Hope has been deposited, and that a citizen printer has been assigned to the position." The paper, he says, is entirely the inmates' paper, and is edited, contributed to and printed by the inmates themselves. It is strictly an institution journal, conducted by the inmates themselves in every branch.

WICKSON.

Wickson, May 21.—We are still being visited by the rains. Crops are unusually late and extraordinarily sorry. Corn is almost a complete failure and cotton badly damaged. There will be services next fourth Sunday at Bethel.

EXCURSION TO EL PASO.

The El Paso chamber of commerce issues a circular regarding the meeting of the State Teachers' association in that city in June, from which we take the following extracts. Full particulars may be had by addressing El Paso chamber of commerce: To Editors, Teachers and all Others Interested:

The annual meeting of the Texas State Teachers' association for the present year will be held in El Paso, June 26th to 29th. This meeting will offer in a number of important particulars an uncommonly favorable and inviting opportunity for the people of Eastern Texas to visit this unique and active city on the Mexican border, enjoy its hospitality, visit a number of points of interest to which excursions will be made, and have a good time generally.

Some of the more important excursion rates already secured in connection with this meeting are as follows:

From points as far east as Dallas, Sherman and Houston, the T. & P. and G. H. & S. A. Railway companies have granted a blanket rate of $10 for the round trip. The tickets can be extended, if desired, to August 5th. Unusually favorable rates are also offered visitors who may wish to take a trip from El Paso into old Mexico.

A trip from El Paso to the beautiful mountain resort of Cloudercroft and return the same day has been arranged for, at a round trip rate of $3. This trip is one of the most unique and enjoyable excursions open to the tourist anywhere. It cannot be described. It must be experienced. The railroad which ascends the mountain is itself a wonder of engineering, and it climbs up, up, up among the clouds to an elevation of nine thousand feet, where are great forests of pine, pure, cold spring water, air that is not merely cool, but cold, even in mid summer, and mountain views that are rarely equaled in grandeur and picturesqueness. Other exceedingly interesting nearby trips are mentioned.

The hotels will charge for one person in one room, with meals, $1.50 to $2.50 per day; or where two people occupy a room, $1.25 to $2 each. Good beds in apartment houses and private residences will cost from 50 to 75 cents per night, and good meals at restaurants and boarding houses and hotels 25 to 50 cents.

Local committees will look after the interest and comfort of guests, and no extortion will be permitted.

At the close of the convention a Summer State School of Methods will be held, lasting until about the 5th of August. Thus the visiting teacher is offered, along with the pleasure and entertainment of the trip to El Paso, an opportunity for a profitable session of professional study. Teachers from Eastern Texas are assured that they will find their stay in El Paso a pleasant recreation for the whole time they may be here.

Everybody is invited—not merely teachers, but everybody else who wants to come. And everybody will be treated as well as El Paso knows how to do it.

EL PASO CHAMBER OF COMMERCE,
Ernest E. Russell,
Secretary.

PUSHING AHEAD.

General French Has Reached Prospect Station Beyond the Rhenoster.

London, May 24.—General French has reached Prospect Station, about 5 miles north of Rhenoster river. The Boers are retreating straight on the Vaal. A dispatch from Rhenoster, dated on Wednesday says:

"The general opinion is we will reach Pretoria as fast as we can march, though the Boers announced to all the country they intended to fight to death."

Ian Hamilton is cooperating in advance on the right, thus Roberts, who presumably is a few miles behind French, will reach the Vaal before the end of the week.

In Natal Buller's forces have crossed into the Transvaal near Ingogo, but still held at bay at Laings Nek, where the Boers are entrenching. With the exception of this pass, Natal is clear of the Boers. They have a big gun posted, but it is doubtful if they will be able to hold the position when threatened by flanking movement from the force that has crossed the Ingogo river.

A dispatch from Pretoria announces the first train north entered Mafeking on May 22, and the first train south is expected next week. It is said that the relief of Mafeking is due to a blunder of one of the Federal officers, by which General Delarey was foiled in his plan to cut off the relief force after driving them away from Molopo river. It is added that the Federals have resolved to make a determined defense of Johannesburg. Klimke, state mining engineer, has been given six months leave of absence presumably for protesting against the proposition to blow up the mines.

A special dispatch from New Castle, Natal, says Russian ambulance corps, with the Boers, is disgusted with their conduct and has requested the czar that he recall it.

BOER COMMISSIONERS.

They Are Undetermined What Course They Will Now Pursue.

Washington, May 24.—The plans of campaign of the Boer peace commissioners have not yet been fully outlined. They will probably remain in Washington until Tuesday, after which they will begin a tour of the west as has been previously intimated.

Mr. Fischer, of the delegation is now busy outlining itinerary, but he says it was too early to give any definite details of that plan.

Mr. Wessels, one of the members who speaks good English, probably will go to Bridgeport Saturday night with Representative Lentz of Ohio, to address a pro-Boer meeting there.

The delegates have not yet decided whether or not they will issue an official statement before leaving Washington. They feel that under the circumstances this would be a delicate undertaking and no matter how carefully it was worded would be liable to misconstruction. Therefore it is quite probable their statements will be confined to whatever addresses they may make at pro-Boer meetings, which are being arranged for their coming tour of the country.

WILL GET NOTHING.

DAMAGE SUITS AGAINST LA BOURGOGNE
Must Be Dismissed.

New York, May 24.—The French line to New York known as Compagnie Generale Transatlantique, whose steamship La Bourgogne sank on July 4, 1898, from 60 to 100 miles off Sable Island, with a great loss of life, has filed a petition in the United States district court which, it is said, will practically cut off without a cent, all claimants for damages. There are 63 claims in all, and the claimants which have been stated on papers filed amount to $1,200,534.75.

There are 21 claims in which the amounts are not stated, and these will bring the sum total up to about $1,500,000. The petition of the French line prays for a limitation of its liability for loss, damage or injury caused by the collision between La Bourgogne and the British ship Cromartyshire, which resulted in the foundering of the French liner. This limitation, according to the federal statute upon which the petition is made, is the value of the ship and the freight pending. Inasmuch as all that was left of the ship was a boat and a life raft and the freight sunk with the ship, the liability of the company is practically limited to nothing.

The statute upon which the petitioner's relief was passed in 1851.

MINE VICTIMS BURIED.

Raleigh, N. C., May 24.—Ten whites and twelve negroes, who lost their lives in an explosion at Crimmon coal mines, Chatham county, N. C., Tuesday afternoon were buried there Wednesday. The explosion is supposed to have been caused by a broken gauze in a safety lamp. The accident was in what is known as the East Heading and between 40 and 60 men were in the mine at the time. Five were brought out alive from the east. None of the men in the other parts of the other parts of the mine were injured.

BIG UNDERTAKING.

Atlanta, May 24.—The southern general assembly of the Presbyterian church will likely raise a Twentieth Century fund of $1,000,000 to be used principally for endowment and establishment of educational institutions.

Victim of Hydrophobia.

Luling, Tex., May 23.—The remains of J. T. Foster who died at Uvalde, Tex., of hydrophobia caused by the bite of a mad wolf, were brought here and interred.

Big bankrupt sale

THE W. C. GILMORE STOCK
Aggregating $10,000

BOUGHT AT A GREAT SACRIFICE, IS NOW ON SALE.

In consideration of our already heavy stock and lack of room, these goods must and will be sold regardless of real value. Also we have thrown in this sale large quantities of our regular stock at greatly reduced prices in order to be sure of making the needed room by the end of the season. Remember there will be nothing reserved. Respectfully,

MISTRÖT BRO'S. & CO.

Mrs. McKinley's Morning Drive.

Mrs. McKinley drives every morning from 10 to 11 o'clock, almost invariably accompanied by some friend. "The court ladies," as cynics sometimes call them, value highly the privilege of driving with the president's wife, the wives of cabinet officers being most frequently favored in this way.

Overreached Himself.

A builder in Glasgow, having heard that his men did not start work at the proper time, thought that he would drop down some morning about 6:30 to see, says Waverly Magazine. Going up the yard he caught sight of a joiner standing smoking, with his kit unopened. Simply asking his name, which he found to be Malcolm Campbell, he called him into the office and, handing four days' pay, told him to leave at once. After having seen the man clear out of the yards he went up to the foreman and told him he had made an example of Malcolm Campbell by paying him off for not starting at the proper time. "Great Scott!" exclaimed the foreman, "that chap was only looking for a job!"

Best Obsolete Words.

A London journal recently offered a prize for a list of the best six of old English words which might be revived with advantage. Two of the words in the winning list are "commorient," dying together, and "algate," at any risk.

Sailor Statesmen.

Two members of the present congress began life as sailors. Each was a New Englander by birth, each ran away to sea, and each made his home in California. One is Senator Perkins and the other Representative E. F. Loud.

Yale in Congress.

There are sixteen Yale men in the present congress. Five of these are Senators E. O. Wolcott, W. M. Stewart, T. C. Platt, C. M. Depew and G. P. Wetmore.

A Toiling Croesus.

Few rich men work harder than John D. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil Croesus, and certainly no other New York millionaire is personally so little in evidence as he. Nearly every day he puts in a lengthy period at his office in lower Broadway, and even the days he is absent are usually passed in business pursuits elsewhere. There is, therefore, color of truth in the report that he recently sighed for a man to look after his interests, offering to pay an annual salary of $1,000,000 for such service.

Deftly Dodged.

An overinquisitive acquaintance recently asked the Duke of Devonshire what had been done at the cabinet meeting that day. The Duke refrained from displaying the astonishment he felt at such an extraordinary question and replied in a confidential whisper: "Well, the truth is that Lord Salisbury is getting old and so am I. He speaks in rather a low tone of voice and as I am rather deaf I can't tell you anything about it, my dear fellow."

Her Husband's Pulpit Substitute.

Owing to the absence of Rev. Mr. M. E. Harlan from his pulpit in the First Church of Christ, Disciples, in Sterling place, Brooklyn, his wife preached at both services Sunday. Mrs. Harlan has been engaged in missionary work for a number of years, but it was the first time she had preached since she went to Brooklyn from Topeka, Kas., six months ago. Her subject at the evening service was, "Dignified Humanity."

Correcting an Error.

The editor of the Star of Hope, Sing Sing, 1,500, denounces as false the report that "the convict editor of the Star of Hope has been deposited, and that a citizen printer has been assigned to the position." The paper, he says, is entirely the inmates' paper, and is edited, contributed to and printed by the inmates themselves. It is strictly an institution journal, conducted by the inmates themselves in every branch.

To Harden Copper Like Steel.

D. L. Andrews, of Nashua, N. H., formerly a resident of the western part of the country, believes he has discovered that lost art of tempering copper to the firmness of steel. Mr. Andrews is a grizzled but hearty looking man of 80, although he would be taken to be twelve or fifteen years younger. He was born in Vermont, but most of the active years of his life have been spent in the West, where he was long employed as a coal inspector. His home was in the copper regions of Michigan, and it was there that he first saw the hardened copper as it had come down from the ancients who peopled that country centuries before. In conversation with a newspaper man, Mr. Andrews said "I can temper and harden copper to the firmness of steel to a degree of nicety that the ancients never dreamed of, and, unless I am greatly mistaken, my secret, when once applied in a practical sense, will revolutionize many things in the scientific world. I know the value of my secret, and have taken plans to fully preserve it in the event of my demise. My plans for the present are to dispose of a fractional interest for the purpose of securing the necessary funds to place my art in the hands of capitalists. I have an offer of $50,000 for a one-third interest, and I have been told by New York parties with whom I have been in touch that the rights for this country alone are worth at least $1,000,000."

The reported candidacy of General Horace Porter, ambassador to France, for the vice presidential nomination on the Republican ticket has got as far as the general's emphatic declaration that he has nothing to say on the subject.

Siberian Civilization.

Almost all the towns in Siberia are having arc lights for street use and incandescent lights for houses and the larger proportion of the people of Siberia have never seen gas, which they regard as an illuminant of a past age.
